

TEST PREPARATION & REVIEW CLASSES

Prepare to do your best on test day

PSAT Preparation

You've already done the long-term preparation by taking challenging high school courses and actively engaging in reading and problem-solving. Now, improve your chances of scoring well on this standardized test that is so crucial to the college-bound. Benefit from a class led by an experienced test prep instructor as you focus on the approach to questions measuring your skills in the areas of critical reading, math, and writing. You'll gain early practice for the SAT and an opportunity to qualify for a National Merit Scholarship.

ACT Preparation

Losing sleep and getting anxious about test day? In this intensive class, you'll build confidence and make the most of your potential by studying strategies for taking the ACT and by reviewing topics covered by the ACT (math, writing and reading comprehension). Learn a variety of test taking methods and work with the instructor to adapt the ones that best suit your own unique style and personal strengths. You'll get support for questions and concerns; plus discussions, PowerPoints, use of TPR materials, and lots of concrete examples. Discover approaches to increase your odds on each question type, how to use a process of elimination, construct a well-defined essay (optional) on this test, plan your critical reading passage strategy, and learn when it's good to guess.

SAT Preparation

Gain confidence and make the most of your potential by studying strategies for taking the SAT and by reviewing topics covered by the SAT. You will learn specific techniques for taking the math, writing and reading comprehension parts of the test. Discover how the test is structured, effective methods for solving each problem type, and what to expect. Acquire an arsenal of tools to help you succeed, including how to use a process of elimination, construct a well-defined essay on test day, plan your critical reading passage strategy, and decide how to handle the conundrum "to guess or not to guess."

GMAT Preparation: Concentrated

Our concentrated course is team-taught and class size is kept small to enhance your learning experience. The English instructor provides an intro to the Graduate Management Admission Test, including common misconceptions, time management tips, and insights into how to study. He covers the analytical writing assessment and verbal sections. The math instructor teaches the quantitative and integrated reasoning sections and reviews concepts of algebra and geometry. You'll work with authentic test questions and responses and arm yourself with skills and confidence by learning helpful strategies.

LSAT Preparation

The key to success on the Law School Admission Test is practice, strategy, and timing. Delve into a detailed analysis of each LSAT problem type: reading comprehension, analytical reasoning, and logical reasoning. By discussing the problems and explanations, you'll develop the ability to approach the LSAT as a series of intellectual games to which you can apply strategies studied in class. You will also benefit from the instructor's critique of your LSAT writing samples. The course culminates in a full-length mock exam. Using actual questions from previous tests, under timed conditions, will prepare you for the real environment. In addition, and outside of classroom hours, the instructor offers individualized assistance with the personal statement essay required for all law school applications.

TOEFL iBT Preparation Class

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is used to measure English language proficiency. It is the most accepted test in the world; and Internet-based testing has made it even more accessible. This course will help you prepare to take the TOEFL as you focus on the main features of the test, test-taking strategies, exercises, and practice. We will cover the types of skills evaluated by the various sections of the test, including reading, listening, writing and speaking.
