THE AMERICAN FREE ENTERPRISE AND LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE CONDUCTING ITS 44th ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Offering an early college life experience and the opportunity to earn two (2) semester college credits.

Conference activities include: Discussions by Business Executives and University Professors; the formation of companies that produce, market and sell a product or service. Students are introduced to personal finance through the "Welcome to the Real World" and "Responsible Use of Credit" activities and have the opportunity to visit area businesses. This is a high school and college level course NOT a camp, students will receive a certificate of completion and if enrolled in the college course, a letter grade, therefore, students need to understand that they will attend lectures and presentations as well as participate in "hands on" learning activities during the week.

Recreational activities include: campus activities, swimming, outdoor basketball (weather permitting), "get acquainted" activities, dance and pizza party, and talent show. The American Free Enterprise and Leadership Conference is an interesting and exciting experience contributing to your education, career goals, and your entire life.

The AMERICAN FREE ENTERPRISE AND LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE is managed by URG Enactus, sponsored by The Loren M. Berry Center for Economic Education and in partnership with the Evans School of Business. The conference focuses on the linkage between the Free Market Economy and individual Freedom, Dignity and Liberty.

Registration Deadline: June 1, 2016
