

2016 Regents STARTALK

Foreign Language Academy

Summer 2016 (June 19 – July 16)

Program Highlights

If you are an Ohio high school student, this is an opportunity for you to start on your way to advanced-level proficiency in the critical-need languages of Chinese and Russian!

- Program is intended for students with no prior knowledge of Chinese and Russian
- Students can receive up to 5 college credits
- Students live and study together in the Kent State Honors College (Johnson/Stopher Halls)
- Teachers are experienced professionals from local colleges and universities
- Program, including technology, room, board, and tuition, is entirely free for Ohio high school students

Requirements/Eligibility

- Program is open to all rising high school juniors & seniors
- Students must participate in a follow-up academic year component consisting of distance learning and monthly Saturday sessions (see website for dates)
- Applications are due by April 15. Application materials postmarked after April 15 will not be considered
- Admission decisions will be announced on May 1.

Talk to your parents and guidance counselor about this unique opportunity and apply to the Regents STARTALK Foreign Language Academy at Kent State University!
